

2,000 KILLED.

Spaniards Entrapped by Maceo and Slaughtered by Hundreds.

WEYLER EXPECTING AN ATTACK.

Strengthening Fortifications of Havana in Expectation of Gomez and Maceo.

NUMEROUS DISPATCHES OF INTEREST.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 27.—Col. Jose Reyes, aide-de-camp of General Maceo, wounded and en route to New York for medical treatment and with dispatches to the Junta, passed through here yesterday.

He says the fighting in the Rubi Hill portion of Pinar del Rio was the most sanguinary of the war. He claims that 2,000 of Weyler's men were killed in two days and twice as many wounded.

Weyler went to the field with 35,000 men, in three columns, one of 15,000 under himself, one of 5,000 under Gen. Echague and a third of 10,000 under Gen. Munoz.

They found Maceo entrenched in a crescent-shaped range of hills. When at the foot of the hills the Spaniards were met with a withering fire that cut gaps in their ranks.

Maceo's men shot from behind rocks and trees and gradually gave way before the Spaniards, who, encouraged by what they thought to be a victory, pursued them.

Suddenly a deafening explosion rent the air and a scene followed somewhat like the mine horror at Petersburg during the civil war. Horses and men were blown high in the air and fell to earth dead and mangled. Maceo then led loose his dynamite guas and more havoc was wrought.

In the mine explosion Col. Reyes says Weyler lost 700 men killed and 500 more in charge, besides 1,000 wounded. Next day Maceo, knowing of the reserve force under Weyler, retreated to even a stronger position. There he was attacked by the column under Echague, who was roundly thrashed and driven from the field, losing 800 men killed, besides 1,300 wounded.

Havana, Nov. 27.—Captain General Weyler is working night and day increasing the fortifications of this city. The city is in a perfect panic and rumors of all kinds are flying about. An attack from the combined forces of Generals Maceo and Gomez is expected certainly before Sunday.

CUBANS MUCH ELATED.

Weyler Disgusted with Maceo's Method of Warfare.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 27.—The Cubans here are elated over news brought over by another of Maceo's agents, a lieutenant in his army, who comes with sealed dispatches to the Junta in New York.

According to this officer Maceo intends co-operating with Gomez soon in an attack on Havana direct. He says Weyler lost many men in his various skirmishes with Maceo's men, and that the Spanish captain general was disgusted with Maceo's methods of fighting, and it was rumored in Maceo's camp before he left that Weyler would retire to Havana soon, alleging that it was "too hot and unhealthy to fight now, but after Christmas he would do up Maceo." Maceo kept Weyler stirred up all the while by incessant guerrilla attacks and ambushes.

ult of the presidential election in the United States, November 16, when the Pacific mail steamer, the City of Pekin, arrived there from Yokohama. There was great rejoicing over McKinley's election. A big jollification was held in Honolulu in the evening.

NO CHANGE IN RETURNS

The State Canvassing Board Completes Its Work at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 27.—The state canvassing board met here today to canvass the vote of the recent election. The canvass resulted in no change of the vote already announced. McKinley's majority is 281. The certificates will be issued this afternoon. The silverites, represented by Hon. Jas. D. Black and Hon. C. W. Metcalfe, filed a contest against eleven Republican electors. S. H. Kash is the only Republican not contested. The contest will amount to nothing.

Killed at a Dance.

Sherrisburg, Ky., Nov. 27.—This town was the scene of a most brutal murder last night. City Marshal Sharp shot and instantly killed a young man named Tom Gibbons at a Thanksgiving dance at Gibbons' home. The murder was entirely unprovoked. Sharp had been drinking. After shooting Gibbons the murderer fled and has not yet been captured.

Cleveland a Poor Man.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The closest friends of Mr. Cleveland, those in position to know whereof they speak, say he will leave the White House a poor man, having saved little or nothing of his salary, and having acquired nothing from other sources during his official life.

Found Hanging.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 27.—Frank McClusky, of Maysville, who recently escaped from the hospital here, was this morning found hanging in an out house belonging to the cemetery. He had apparently been dead some hours.

Officer White's Murderer Failed.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 27.—The murder of Officer White was last night brought to this city and quietly jailed. There is no fear of mob violence unless the trial should be unreasonably delayed.

Will Enforce Civil Service Law.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—It is the understanding of those near Mr. McKinley that he will insist on a strict and vigorous enforcement of the civil service law. There will be no attempt to place Republicans in office contrary to law.

On Trial For Counterfeiting.

Louisville, Ind., Nov. 27.—Percy Sullivan, a Kentucky native, is on trial here in the United States court for counterfeiting. He is defended by Judge Dulaney and Clarence McElroy, of Louisville. The evidence, so far as heard, is exceedingly damaging to the defendant.

WRATHFUL WINDS

They Spare Paducah, But Touch Other Cities.

NO GREAT DAMAGE DONE.

Many Roofs Blown Off in Cities of Surrounding Counties.

WIRES ALL DOWN—A FALSE REPORT.

A severe wind and rain storm swept over the city last night, but did little damage. A strong gale blew all day, but at night slightly abated, and a light rain began to fall. About 9:30 the elements got on a rampage again and the rain fell in torrents, accompanied by lightning and thunder.

The gutters overflowed, and the streets were so flooded that passage was impossible in many places. Street crossings were doated away, and the thoroughfares were washed clean by the raging, sweeping torrents. The storm lasted for over an hour, and big damage is reported from cities nearby.

According to many who were out in the storm, and afterwards, there was never before such a copious rainfall in so short a time in McCracken county.

Yesterday afternoon a telephone post at Seventh and Washington was broken off short by the wind, but the damage was soon repaired.

The Boats Laid Up.

Early in the evening a message was received by the crew of the transfer steamer Osburn warning it of an approaching storm, and advising it to remain on this side of the river with the 6:45 passenger train for St. Louis until further orders.

The big boat hugged the shore for several hours and the cradles on the inclines on both this and the Illinois shore were chained down to prevent their being lifted off by the wind.

The Dick Fowler was unable to leave Cairo on time on account of the terrific wind, and was blown into the shore and slightly damaged. She did not reach Paducah until 4 a. m.

Trains Late.

All the trains were late. The N. C. & St. L. passenger due at 8:30 did not arrive for some time, the train having to stop often while the engineer cleared the track of broken timber and debris of various kinds.

The Memphis train on the Illinois Central, due at 12:55, did not arrive until 2:15 o'clock, and the Louisville train on the same road, due at 1:57, did not arrive until 5:20 this morning. These delays were occasioned by fallen timber, washouts and other results of the storm. Little damage was reported, however.

Wires all Down.

Nearly all the telegraph wires into the city were down, and no information as to the probable extent of the damage could be obtained.

This morning they were working somewhat better, and at 8:10 a. m. an extra section of train No. 122 left the Broadway depot, on board of which was Trainmaster J. J. Flynn and the complete corps of railroad linemen, who went up the road to repair the damaged wires.

Damage at Kuttawa.

At Kuttawa a house occupied by John Manning was blown down, but no one was injured. The big smoke stack of Ray Brothers' mill was blown down.

At Eddyville.

The Illinois Central depot at Eddyville was unroofed by the hurricane, but no one was hurt. The property of the railroad company was badly damaged, however.

At Mayfield.

The roof was blown off Will Landrum's business house at Mayfield, and the smoke stack on the city electric and water plant was blown down. So far as our informant could learn, this is the extent of the damage at Mayfield.

At Fulton.

The gable end of one house was blown out at Fulton, but the name of the occupant could not be learned. There was little damage done there.

Grand Rivers Suffers.

At Grand Rivers the wind blew the roof off the large furnace building office.

At Dawson the fronts of Cojillas' saloon and Alexander's clothing store were blown out. Both stores are located near the railroad track, and could be plainly seen from the trains.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon the wires had been restrung as far as St. Charles, Ky., but all wires were reported down on the Memphis division.

All the wires of the Postal Telegraph company were down and manager Overstreet reported at noon that the entire day would be required to get them in working order again.

At Benton.

Benton, Ky., Nov. 27.—The storm that passed through this section last night was quite severe in the vicinity of Briensburg. A tobacco barn belonging to D. A. Walker, which was filled with tobacco, was entirely wrecked, entailing a loss of several hundred dollars on Mr. Walker. A stock barn belonging to Dr. J. M. Mooney was also blown down. The front end of D. M. Field's dry goods store was torn away. Several houses were unroofed and otherwise damaged. Fences were laid low all along the path of the storm. So far as heard from no lives were lost.

WORST IN YEARS.

The Great Northwest Under Snow and Ice.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—The worst blizzard in years is raging in the Northwest and the whole country is blockaded.

Thousands of head of stock have perished from cold, and many of the herdsmen have been frozen to death. Trains are stalled in the great snow drifts and street cars are blockaded in the cities.

Idaho, Montana, the Dakotas and Minnesota are buried under heavy snow and the blizzard in Montana and the Dakotas has caused death to many.

It is the most terrible storm for many years.

DESTRUCTIVE CYCLONE.

Sweeps Over Southern Texas With Great Damage.

Waco, Texas, Nov. 27.—Late reports from the cyclone which yesterday passed near Falls county show that five persons were killed and hundreds of houses blown down. The cyclone was felt in three counties, but Falls suffered most. Mart P. O., about nineteen miles from the county seat, was the scene of the deaths and most of the destruction of property.

TURNED UP SAFE.

A Photographer at Kuttawa Was Missing.

Supposed to Have Been Blown Into the River, But Was Not.

This morning a report was received in the city that a photographer named Williams, who resided at Kuttawa, near the river, rushed out of the house with his baby in his arms last night when the wind struck the village and had not been seen or heard of since.

The supposition was that he and his child had been blown into the river and there is said to have been great excitement. A report similar to the above was talked over the railroad wires, also, and was current throughout the city.

Later, however, Williams turned up at a neighbor's house, and said that he had been blown into the river and there is said to have been great excitement. A report similar to the above was talked over the railroad wires, also, and was current throughout the city.

THE DICK

Had a Rough Time Yesterday Afternoon.

LOOKED LIKE A WRECK.

Encountered a Gale Down Near Mound City—Laid Up Today.

THE I. C. STEAMER OSBORNE SUFFERS.

The handsome steamer Dick Fowler, which plys between Paducah and Cairo, fared much worse in the storm than reported in another column.

She left Paducah late yesterday morning, and when just above Mound City, Ill., preparing to make a landing about 2:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the wind struck her and played havoc with her stage, smoke stack and rigging.

The stage plank, boom and mast were splintered and blown overboard, the search light carried away as if it were a feather, and the chimneys were bent and loosened. The front railing of the boiler deck was all blown away, and the elegant steamer looked like she had run amuck in a sure enough cyclone.

She was not disabled, despite her rough experience, and proceeded to land and send the crew out after the lost appurtenances.

She continued her trip and reached Cairo without further damage, returning to Paducah this morning at 4 o'clock to lay up for repairs. She will likely resume her run tomorrow, as a large force of workmen was to-day employed in repairing the ill-treated craft. No boat went to Cairo this forenoon. The damage will probably reach $250.

THE OSBORNE DISABLED.

The big transfer steamer Osborne did not have everything its way yesterday and last night, and suffered from a tumultuous, wind-swept river as well as the smaller craft.

When she started to cross the river last night, after remaining close to this shore for three hours, she was seized by the wind and turned around and around, the heavy strain on the engines breaking a large iron bolt on the cylinder. She was laid up the greater part of the day receiving repairs.

FRIDAY, NOV. 27, 1896.

ABOUT 90,000 votes were cast by women for the Popocratic ticket in the states carried by Mr. Bryan in the West.

The total vote cast for the Prohibition candidate for president of the United States in the recent election was 80,000 against 262,799 in 1892. Prohibition as a political issue is decidedly on the wane.

For $1500 a night and a percentage of the receipts a first-class opera singer can usually be secured, if payment of the hard cash is made in advance. What a fortune there is in a good voice well cultivated few people know.

The only thing that will redeem Turkey from her barbarism is for European nations to partition it among themselves as they did Poland. The cause of humanity would be served by it in this instance, as it was not in the other.

The wily Dr. Hunter is said to have thirty-four votes corralled already whenever a Republican caucus shall be called at Frankfort to nominate a United States senator. Thirty-six votes is all that is necessary and Hunter stock has a sky rocket movement. Here's to the Republican nominee, and may Kentucky's new senator be a Republican.

By the official vote of Nebraska Bryan's plurality in that state was 13,000, the total Popocratic vote being 115,624, an increase of 7,547 or about 6.9 per cent. over the sum of the Democratic and Populist vote of 1892. The total McKinley vote was 102,564, an increase of 15,337 or more than 17.5 per cent. This, for the home state of the Popocratic nominee, is a splendid showing for the Republicans.

The general council of the Seine, France, has adopted a resolution asking the government of France to convene a congress of European nations to arrange for a gradual disarmament. The greatest menace to the peace of Europe is her standing armies, made necessary, one by another. The great burden on the people for their maintenance, both in the way of taxation and of service, precludes their claiming to be a free people.

COL. JAMES O. BROADHEAD, of St. Louis, in conversation with President Cleveland a day or two since, made a remark that seemed to impress the President favorably. It was to the effect that there had been but two Democratic platforms in twenty years which were entirely sincere. "These were the declarations made at Chicago and at Indianapolis last summer," said Col. Broadhead. "The platform of the Bryan Democracy was sincere, but it was damnable and revolutionary."

"GREATER NEW YORK," as New York and Brooklyn are called since the passage of the law authorizing their consolidation will have a population in excess of 3,000,000. Surpassed only by London, it will be the second city in size on the earth. This is about half the entire population of New York state, and but three other states, namely, Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania have a population equal to it. Chicago will be the fourth if not the third city in size in the world in 1920.

To contest or not to contest seems to be the dilemma that is confronting the Popocrats of Kentucky. Some of the hot-headed kid politicians that pose as the exponents of Bryanism in Kentucky and as "leaders" are far from contesting along the whole line. But they are counting in the Bryan electors they may count out John Rhea in the Third, and Evan Settle in the Seventh districts. A wholesale investigation of alleged election frauds is very likely to prove vastly more than the silverites care to have established. Hence the uncertainty. It is safe to say that if the silverites contest that it will be a very mild bluff.

THE latest news from Cuba is most gratifying to lovers of liberty and to haters of murder and rapine. Maceo, the wily patriot leader, is too shrewd for the bloodthirsty Weyler, and the results of Weyler's expedition against the insurgents is equivalent to a humiliating defeat. Maceo's tactics and patriotic courage and self denial, remind one of the revolutionary leaders away back in 1776; and every American heart beats more proudly today at the prospects of Cuban success. Uter demoralization seems to be overtaking the Spaniards, and even Havana is panic stricken and the cry of "Maceo at the gates" carries terror to the hearts of the Spanish adherents.

ONE of the most telling and appropriate cartoons that have recently appeared was that in the "Inter Ocean" of Wednesday, being in one part a reproduction of a cartoon which appeared in the "Inter Ocean" of March 5, 1893. This represented Mr. Harrison in the act of delivering the chariot reins into the hands of Mr. Cleveland. To the chariot was hitched a team of horses named respectively, "Protection" and "Prosperity." In handing over the reins Mr. Harrison remarks: "I have found this a good team. If you part with 'Protection' be careful his mate does not die." In the other part of the picture is Mr. Cleveland much distressed, "Prosperity" having fallen dead. A little distance off is the skeleton of "Protection," which has evidently died some time since. The legend to this part of the picture is: "They were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in death they were not parted." This is a most true and vivid presentation of the result of the Democratic policy of low tariff.

A CORRESPONDENT of the "Register," signing himself "Book Agent," saw a small item in the news columns of the SUN relating a little circumstance in which "a prominent society lady" was stated to have included in the denomination of "nuisances" the men of his calling. "Book Agent" rushes into print to defend a calling in which he says he has engaged "in order to finish his education." His editor of the SUN a lot of billingsgate for an offense which he did not commit. It is hoped "Book Agent" may get his education and that he will then be able to discern the difference between an editorial and a news item, also that in getting his education he may learn something of good manners. Personally the editor of the SUN holds book agents as a class in high estimation, but he is in doubt whether this particular specimen is an honor to the profession. En passant it may be remarked that the feelings of the aforesaid editor are dreadfully harrowed by the unkindness of "Book Agent."

THE announcement has officially been made that a new cotton mill will be built as soon as possible at Birmingham, at a cost of half a million dollars. This is an illustration of the southward movement of the cotton manufacturing industry; and, while Paducah may not be able to secure as large a factory as the one above mentioned, there is a cotton factory in store for Paducah, if her people will take the right methods to secure one. The first thing to be done is the formation of a Merchants' League or Chamber of Commerce, some local organization that will take upon itself the work of advertising the advantages of our city, the corresponding with prospective investors or manufacturers desiring a southern location and, if necessary, the hunting up of these parties in person. There are many other most necessary steps that must be taken, such as the securing of desirable sites for factories, which can be sold at low cost or donated for factory purposes. These things cost a little money, but the returns are many fold. Let this suggestion be discussed and some early action be taken.

AN article that appeared in the news columns of the SUN yesterday did great injustice to the Illinois Central railroad and was inadvertently admitted as written with strictures that are not approved by the editor of this paper. In the first place the number of men laid off here, according to the statement of the master mechanic, was but twenty-six instead of fifty as stated. Forty men were laid off on the division, but fourteen of them were at Louisville, the shops there being in charge of Master Mechanic Chambers, who is a resident here. There were 100 hands employed at Louisville and about 400 here, and the reduction of force at Louisville was tionately greater, than last here, disposing effectually of the intimation that the management of the road is disposed to treat Paducah unfairly. Of course a railroad corporation must be permitted to manage its own business in its own way. They have vast interests to look after and if in the management of them they fail to employ as many men as would be desirable, it is of course to be regretted but it is folly therefore to condemn the road as treating the people unfairly. A railroad is not a charitable institution organized for the purpose of giving work to the people, but merely a business organization, conducted on business principles, employing as many men as are needed from time to time and no more.

The three days' lay-off complained of at this time applies not only to Paducah but to the entire system, and by it the road saves many thousands of dollars, at a time when the work is not needed.

It is not an unusual thing for railroads towards the end of the year to reduce their working forces largely and to increase them again after the first of January, and this will probably be done in this instance.

THE SUN'S EFFORTS APPRECIATED.

The SUN is in receipt of an autograph letter from members of the Republican National Committee, which is as follows:
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17, 1896.
Editor, SUN Pub. Co.,
Paducah, Ky.
Dear Sir:
Now that the campaign for honest money and our country's prosperity is over, and we have won an emphatic victory, we write to thank you in behalf not only of the National Committee, but of all good citizens, for the faithful and efficient work you have performed. We thank you for your good work and the part you have taken in this campaign. The name of your paper has been recorded upon the records of this committee as entitled to high praise. Wishing you success, we are Yours truly,

NEW CABLE.

It Has, at Last, Arrived at Brooklyn.

Work Will Be Begun at Once on the Line.

The new cable to be laid from Brooklyn, Ill., to Paducah is now at Brooklyn, and the advance crew of workmen arrived this morning.
The cable is in sections and occupies four cars. There is accompanying it a "sapool" weighing 20,000 pounds, upon which the cable will first be wound.
The huge wire will be loaded into a large barge, towed by a tug, and the work of laying it will consume three weeks or more.
The Postal Telegraph Company, according to the Western Union men, will have no wire in the cable. The Postal Company, however, is now stringing three new wires from Paducah to Memphis, and today reached Fulton. This is done on account of increased business of the company.
As soon as the new cable is laid to Brooklyn telephone as well as telegraphic communication will be established between Paducah and all points along the lines in Illinois.

Return After Big Hunts For Game.

Local Hunters Kill Four Deer.
1,000 Birds Bagged by Another Party.

Dr. L. E. White, Attorneys C. K. Wheeler and W. F. Bradshaw, Mr. Chas. E. Abbott, Tom Sanders and Hunter Hough returned this morning from a several days' hunt over in Missouri.
They killed squirrels and birds without number, and succeeded in bagging four fine deer in two days. They are well pleased with their trip.
Judge Apperson, D. L. Kirkpatrick, J. B. White and W. P. Oldham, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., who have been enjoying a ten days' bird hunt down at Mr. S. T. Payne's farm, near Ogden's Landing, Ballard county, arrived this morning in the city on their return home. They killed in ten days over 1000 birds.

TO REBUILD

The Myles Warehouse, Which Recently Fell Down.

Bids Have Been Asked For Work To Rebuild Soon.

The J. T. Myles tobacco warehouse, which collapsed last Saturday, will be rebuilt. This was decided yesterday, and local contractors were solicited to submit their bids for doing the work of reconstruction.
Mr. Richard Woolfolk, of Memphis, a brother to Mrs. Sawyer, who owns the building, and Mr. Wayne, who represents the Louisville Trust and Safety Vault company, which holds a mortgage on the property, are in the city, and have completed arrangements for rebuilding, it is said, and work will begin at once.
The tobacco has all been removed from the ruins, and the debris is pretty well cleared up, comparatively speaking. The damage to the tobacco will likely be nominal, but if very great, upon whom the loss will fall is subsequently to be decided.
In rebuilding the structure a great deal of the old material will be used. The roof will be the principle item in the reconstruction, and will probably cost $3,000.

HONEST METHODS

Have built up our business. We not only live up to all we promise but strive to do better.

Cloaks and Capes.

Thousands of cloak buyers visit our cloak room daily. We've added to our reputation as cloak handlers. Hundreds of handsome well made garments to pick from. Many a satisfied woman has made a selection during the past week. If we have pleased others we might please you. Suppose you try.
We show splendid lines of both plain and rough jackets at $5.00, $8.00, $10 and $12. We have a few jackets that we carried over from last year that we offer at $2.00 each.

Corduroys.

In high grade qualities in navy, myrtle, brown and black at 75c.

Blankets.

If you fear temptation don't look at our blankets. There is a suggestion of comfort and snug nights in our blankets that would tempt a miser. Great big, soft, woolly ones that bring pleasant dreams, and with a littleness of price that is as comfortable as the blanket.
11-4 soft fleecy blankets in white and gray at 98c.
12-4 soft fleecy blankets in tan color, at $1.45.
11-4 all-wool blankets, soft and heavy, at $4.45.
11-4 California Blankets, extra fine at $4.25.

Underwear.

Vests and pants and infant suits for ladies, girls boys and infants in both cotton and wool. You can have your choice for little money.

Silver in the South.

From the New York Tribune.
Not the least noteworthy of the results of the election is the hostility to Bryan and free silver shown in the South, in many cases by men and journals that supported him. One of these journals, the Mobile Register, explicitly condemns every plank in the Chicago platform. Another, the Atlanta Journal, in effect does the same thing. Another, the Memphis Commercial-Appeal, says the silver question is dead. The Macon Telegraph thanks heaven that its candidate was beaten, and the San Antonio Express says it has had enough of Bryanism. It is evident that the Democrats are not going to hold the South unless they repudiate silver.

In Four Short Years.

In four short years the silverites have succeeded in reducing Kentucky's Democratic plurality from 40,000 to something less than nothing, and yet these same silverites assert that they are the Democratic salt of the earth. If so, that salt has lost pretty much everything, including its own savor.—Louisville Times.

SHERIFF HOLLAND

Thinks Rapist Stone Is, Without Doubt, Guilty.

Told Too Many Different Stories Did Stone.

Sheriff Holland and Jailer Miller returned this morning from Louisville, where they took Jim Stone, charged with rape.

Sheriff Holland was asked by a Sen representative this morning if he believed Stone was guilty.

"Yes, I certainly believe he is now," was the reply. "When I first began talking to him I was somewhat doubtful of his guilt, but the more I saw him and the more I heard him talk the more I became convinced of his guilt. He told too many different stories."

It is said that night before last two brothers of Mrs. Greer, Stone's alleged victim, organized a mob of 200 to come here and lynch him, but learned just in time that he had been carried to Louisville.

CHURCH NOTES.

In addition to the special Thanksgiving services at various churches yesterday morning and last evening, the revivals now in progress were conducted as usual.

At the First Baptist church Rev. Clay Roberts preached a sermon on "Whatsoever a Man Soweth," and although there was a small attendance on account of the weather, there was one addition to the church and one profession.

Rev. Powell also preached another good sermon last night. The First Christian church was well filled and the subject taken was "What Shall We Do If We Neglect So Great Salvation?" One united with the church by profession.

Lutheran Services Sunday.

Rev. H. Brueckner will preach at his church Sunday, both in the morning and in the evening, since the dedication at Massac has been postponed for another week.

Agent R. S. Hills, of Mercer, Tenn., arrived in the city this afternoon from a long visit to his former home in Matamoras, Mich.

The wire went dead at an early hour last evening. The section men were sent out from several places, but did not succeed in finding all the trouble until daylight.

It is either the fall of the barometer or the great amount of turkey masticated by some of the boys yesterday that makes their snouts so red as they go gobbling around this morning.

The neat and tidy appearance in the coaches of the mail trains leading here for the past week is due to the fact that Sallie Shannon, an expert female car cleaner, is wielding the brooms and brushes.

Mr. John J. Smith, a popular fireman for several years on the through freights, came in on his last run in that service this a. m. He returns to Memphis a dead head on No. 50 this p. m., and in future will shovel diamonds on the South end local.

The father of Fireman Frank Doyle, of this road, was run over Wednesday night by a switch engine of the K. C. road in Memphis and killed. No further particulars obtainable, except that his remains were sent to Holy Springs, Miss., for interment.

Why is it that the retail merchants all keep their business places open until 10 p. m. on the days the I. C. pay car comes. Yet on the days the N. C. & St. L. pay car arrives, unless it is Saturday, their doors are shut up as close as a clam? Since the reduction in force on the I. C. here, this road has near the same number of employees located in the city.

As train No. 104 last night was on its way from Memphis to this city, drawn by engine No. 310, with Engineer Wm. Spence at the throttle, a small tree, which had been blown down by the storm, was run into about half a mile this side of Glade.

As soon as it was cleared away the train proceeded on its journey. When about one mile north of Iola another small sapling was run into, and while the train was at a standstill the rays of the daylight revealed a large tree about fifty yards ahead. Had it not been for the sapling no doubt the tree would have been struck and probably caused a wreck. After all the train came in only ten minutes behind time, and other than the short delay, no damage was sustained.

A novel and pretty story was that on yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of the N. C. & St. L. depot, Master Glenn Potter, the hustling young carrier of the Daily Sun on that route, on reaching as far as home delivering that shining orb, was called in to partake of the Thanksgiving collation. To make amends for the short time he was delayed from his duties his young sister Leila and her charming guests, the three little daughters of Supt. W. J. Hills, Blanche, Helen and Grace concluded to assist him in distributing the rest of his papers. Donning their wraps and hoods each placed a bundle of that radiant luminary under their arms and sallied forth. Glenn acted as corporal of the guard and directed them to the residences where the paper was to be left. So that at times four copies were delivered at almost the same instant. When they came near "Miege's" rendezvous all four started on a run to see from whom they would accept his paper. Of course La petite Grace would have been awarded the choice only that the high wind at the time caught the one in her hand and bore it skyward on its sough. He took one from each to prevent any jealousies among the truant ones which he had recaptured. The incident was witnessed by many passengers on the outgoing train which was leaving just then, and the little ones created quite a ripple of laughter from them as they stood along side of the track screaming at the top of their voices in their sweet childish glee. "Here's your Evening Sun." Glenn finished his route in about one-half the time it usually takes him to do so, and no doubt would be glad to have the assistance of the merry little sprites daily.

Y. M. C. A. BOOK RECEPTION.

A Success Despite the Bad Weather.

The book reception given last night by the ladies' committee of the Y. M. C. A. was a gratifying success, despite the inauspicious weather. An excellent program was rendered and about forty new books by the best authors were added to the library. Refreshments were served to those present, and the ladies are very thankful for the liberality of the public.

Went to the County Jail for Malicious Cutting.

Will Hornbeak, colored, was tried this morning before Judge Sanders for maliciously cutting Alice Duncan a few nights ago.

He is just out of the penitentiary and will probably go back again.

Hornbeak was held over and went to jail in default of a $200 bond. A case against John Kyle and Jim Kirksey, for fighting, was continued. John Ladd, Ira Jones and Ira Moore were fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

ADELINA PATTI, THE QUEEN OF SONG.

"The Kimball Piano has a wonderfully sweet and sympathetic tone."

What Is Home Without a KIMBALL Piano

Now that the promised time has come we invite you to call and see the "Kimballs." The household name of Kimball fills the hearts of all nations with delight. The pride of the world. We will say, however, that we have no Kimball Pianos to sell at 50c on the dollar, but will for the time being offer a discount of 20 per cent. on deferred payments. This is our special sale for the holidays and we invite the music-loving public to visit us at 430 Broadway, opposite Palmer House

CLOSE CALL.

Fell Almost Under the Train This Morning.

Dan Wilson, the hackman, had a narrow escape from death this morning at the Union Depot.

As the 7:50 train backed under the shed Wilson seized the rear platform handle and was lifted off his feet and thrown almost under the wheels. All that saved him was his presence of mind in clinging to the handle and being dragged until he could regain his feet.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

Horse Breaks a Buggy and Part of a Wagon.

A horse attached to Mrs. J. J. Woods' phaeton ran away on North Second street this forenoon about 10:30 o'clock and the buggy was left a total wreck in front of Capt. J. R. Smith's grocery, where it collided with a farm wagon and demolished the rear of the latter.

The horse ran into the market house, where it was stopped.
